

QW focus on... 2010

QW is the UK's leading independent magazine on quality. It is the magazine of the Chartered Quality Institute, the only chartered professional body devoted entirely to quality. Distributed each month to 11,000 professionals, it reports on contemporary business issues and lists the latest jobs in quality.

Focus on... looks at quality in a different sector each month. From opinions and trends to facts and statistics, it's a one-stop overview for the latest in quality in your industry.
